

About AUCC

Welcome to the AUCC website

Interested in joining? Click here! Members, Log In here!

The AUCC (Association for University and College Counselling) is a BACP division which aims to

- represent counsellors in HE and FE through our committees and special interest groups
- offer professional support through our advisory service, journal, research, conference and mailbases
- promote the integration of counselling services into HE and FE institutions, offering advice and best practice guidelines