

AUCC Jiscmail Mailbases

. . . discuss problems . . . share ideas . . . support each other . . . AUCC members have access to the AUCC Jiscmail e-list which offers a supportive and vibrant mailbase, for HE and FE counsellors to discuss problems and share ideas. Apply to: aucc-members-request@jiscmail.ac.uk

Heads of Counselling Services with clinical responsibilities in Universities and Colleges of Higher Education can apply for membership of HUCS Jiscmail e-list by sending an email with details to: Hucs-request@jiscmail.ac.uk

AUCC members who are working in an FE setting can apply to join the Counsellors-in-FE jiscmail e-list by sending an email to: Counsellors-in-fe-request@jiscmail.ac.uk

AUCC members with an interest in staff counselling can apply to join the staff special interest group jiscmail by sending an email with details to:

sig-staff-counselling-uk-request@jiscmail.ac.uk

If you would like to be considered for membership of one or more of these lists:

- send an email to the relevant address above - state your AUCC/BACP membership number - and your reasons for eligibility