

Friday 6 May 2011

08.30 - 09.00	Registration and exhibition viewing in The Merchant Suite.
09.00 - 09.15	Conference opening with Dr Lynne Gabriel, Chair of BACP and Head of Counselling and Psychology, York St John University, and Dr Thomas Schröder, Society for Psychotherapy Research UK Chapter President who will give the co-host welcome, introduced by Andy Hill, BACP Head of Research, who will give an overview of the day ahead.
09.15 - 10.00	1. Keynote presentation by Michael Barkham, Professor of Clinical Psychology and Director of the Centre for Psychological Services Research at the University of Sheffield, entitled 'Re-privileging practitioners at the heart of practice-based evidence'.
10.00 - 10.30 Poster session	2. What impact, if any, does diet and nutrition have on a person with bipolar disorder and what are the implications of this on psychotherapeutic practice? Evanne Constantine and Wesley Freeman-Smith . 3. Changing the researcher, changing the research: the impact of exploring the embodied subjectivities of counsellors working with eating disordered clients, Sharon Cox . 4. A brief history of sPaCE, Jeremy Halstead . 5. An exploration into the impact of supervision on experienced counsellors: a pilot study, Trish Hobman . 6. From a 'forgetfulness of being' and existential crisis, to a 'mindfulness of being' and authenticity: a heuristic inquiry into a new life perspective out of significant losses in alcoholism and bereavement. What are the common factors that facilitate and constitute growth? Gareth Jones . 7. Jamaican parenting styles and their impact on conduct disordered behaviours, Keva R Reid . 8. Does disenfranchisement in certain sections of the gay male community lead to increased use of legal and illegal drugs, if so, what are the implications for counselling practice? Ryan Roberts and Iain Khan Gilchrist . 9. Examining the complexities of measuring effectiveness of online counselling for young people using routine evaluation data, Aaron Sefi . 10. Ostrich in the room: early attachment patterns and how they shape the client's capacity to engage with the therapeutic process, Salma Siddique . 11. Is dieting a socially accepted form of eating disorder, if so, how does this effect counselling practice? Kamilah Tomlinson and Natasha Boxill .
10.30 - 10.50	Refreshments (poster presenters, please stay by your poster to discuss your research with delegates during this break)
ROOMS:	Merchant 1 STRAND 1		Merchant 2 STRAND 2		Merchant 3 STRAND 3		Hornby (ground floor) STRAND 4
10.55 - 12.25 90 minute symposium Paper 1 Paper 2 Paper 3 Ends 12.25	Symposium A 12. School-based counselling: developing research (overview). Mick Cooper, Jo Pybis and Katherine McArthur 13. Evaluation of the implementation of the Welsh Assembly Government's National School-based counselling strategy. Jo Pybis 14. Evaluation of school-based counselling using a sample with a high response rate. Mick Cooper 15. A pilot randomised controlled trial to assess the impact of school-based counselling on young people's well-being, using pastoral care referral. Katherine McArthur Chair and discussant: Mick Cooper	10.55 - 12.25 90 minute symposium Paper 1 Paper 2 Paper 3 Paper 4 Ends 12.25	Symposium B 21. Significant events in person-centred experiential psychotherapy (overview). Jane Balmforth, Robert Elliott, Sue Wiggins and Sarah Shaffner 22. An introduction to significant events research. Robert Elliott 23. Presence of relational depth during significant events in therapy. Sue Wiggins 24. Process characteristics of relational depth events. Sarah Shaffner 25. Significant client disclosure events in therapy: process, effects and context. Jane Balmforth Chair and discussant: Ladislav Timulak	10.55 - 11.25 30 minute paper 11.30 - 12.30 60 minute workshop	33. An evaluation of Roth and Pilling's competence framework for counselling and psychotherapy supervision. Valerie Owen-Pugh and Clare Symons Chair: Andrew Reeves 34. Reflective practitioners - budding researchers? Maggie Robson Chair: Andrew Reeves	10.55 - 12.25 90 minute symposium Paper 1 Paper 2 Paper 3 Paper 4 Ends 12.25	Symposium C 40. When things are not going well in psychotherapy: Can we predict it? Yes we can (overview). Chloe Randal, Sam Tucker, Jeremy Halstead and Chris Leach 41. Theoretical background and rationale of case tracking and feedback in psychological therapies. Chloe Randal 42. The triumphs and tribulations of creating a monitoring and feedback system in a standard UK NHS secondary care setting. Sam Tucker 43. Can we predict who will make early gains in routine psychological therapy? Jeremy Halstead 44. The prediction of therapy outcomes from change at session four. Chris Leach Chair and discussant: Michael Barkham
12.30 - 13.45	Lunch in Oliver's Restaurant
13.50 - 14.20 30 minute paper	16. Healing involvement in trainees: an investigation into the impact of training on a cohort of person-centred trainee counsellors. Julie Folkes-Skinner Chair: Salma Siddique	13.50 - 15.20 90 minute symposium Paper 1 Paper 2 Paper 3 Paper 4 Ends 15.20	Symposium D 26. Relational depth: new research findings (overview). Sue Wiggins, Rosanne Knox, David Murphy and Mick Cooper 27. Relational depth and outcome. Sue Wiggins 28. The proactive client: what 'conventional' clients think about relational depth. Rosanne Knox 29. Mutual experiencing of Rogers' therapeutic conditions: some evidence of relational depth and positive outcome. David Murphy 30. Therapists' and clients' experiences of relational depth: are they synchronous or asynchronous? Mick Cooper Chair and discussant: Rosanne Knox	13.50 - 14.20 30 minute methodological paper 14.25 - 14.55 30 minute methodological paper 15.00 - 15.30 30 minute methodological paper	35. Improving the credibility and rigour of case study evidence: emerging principles. John McLeod Chair: Anja Rutten 36. Focusing a lens: developing a personal, pluralist model of narrative analysis to explore the relational aspects of a family interview. Lesley Spencer Chair: Anja Rutten 37. Working with images and metaphors in qualitative research: benefits and bonuses, perils and pitfalls. Carol Holliday Chair: Anja Rutten	13.50 - 15.20 90 minute symposium Paper 1 Paper 2 Paper 3 Ends 15.20	Symposium E 45. The person centred and experiential psychotherapy scale (PCEPS) (overview). Robert Elliott and Graham Westwell 46. Developing the person centred and experiential psychotherapy scale (PCEPS) - a heuristic collaborative process. Graham Westwell 47. Reliability and generalisability of the person centred and experiential psychotherapy scale (PCEPS). Robert Elliott and Graham Westwell 48. The PCEPS as a case study in the intersection of politics and research. Robert Elliott Chair and discussant: Ladislav Timulak
15.30 - 15.50	Join SAGE publishers for the launch of 'Qualitative Research in Counselling' 2nd edition and 'Case Study Research in Counselling and Psychotherapy' by John McLeod
15.55 - 16.25 30 minute paper	19. Whose therapy is it? A qualitative investigation into the experience of psychodynamic counselling trainees in mandatory therapy. Nicky Holland Chair: Jo Pybis	15.55 - 16.25 30 minute paper	31. Sex talk: male-to-female transwomen talk about the relationship between gender and sexuality. Jane Hunt Chair: Nicola Barden	15.55 - 16.25 30 minute paper	38. Strong fences and flexible frames: therapists' perceptions of boundaries. Thomas Schröder Chair: Janette Simmonds	15.55 - 16.25 30 minute paper	49. How do we care for a child with difficult behaviour? Joanna North Chair: Chris Brown
16.30 - 17.00 30 minute paper	20. Favourites and favouritism in counselling training - exploring people's perceptions, experiences and ideals and their impact. Sandra Taylor Chair: Chris Brown	16.30 - 17.00 30 minute paper	32. The effectiveness of brief therapy provided through an Employee Assistance Programme (EAP) in the UK: gender differences in changing coping strategies for managing stress. Kevin Wright Chair: Nicola Barden	16.30 - 17.00 30 minute paper	39. A qualitative study of critical learning incidents of recently qualified therapists working with sexual minority clients. Laura Baines and Valerie Owen-Pugh Chair: Janette Simmonds	16.30 - 17.00 30 minute paper	50. Levels of personal agency during a life-limiting illness: a qualitative study of the actualising tendency. Ann Campbell Chair: Jo Pybis
17.00 - 19.00	Networking and rest period. The SPR AGM will be held at 17.00 in the Lever Room on the ground floor - all SPR members are invited to attend.
19.00 - 19.30	Lynne Gabriel, Chair of BACP invites everyone for pre dinner drinks sponsored by Taylor & Francis, and 'Meet the Editor of CPR' Dr Andrew Reeves who will award the SAGE poster prize (£100 of SAGE book tokens).
19.30 - 24.00	Dinner, dancing and music with The Jam Factory in The Merchant Suite.						