

Organisational membership application pack

Organisational membership

Supporting you as you change lives through counselling

We believe that effective counselling can change people's lives for the better. Your decision to join BACP shows that you share this vision, and we're looking forward to supporting you as your organisation continues its life-changing journey with us.

We welcome applications for membership from organisations which either:

- Offer counselling and/or psychotherapy services to clients,
- Offer direct services to counsellors and/or psychotherapists,
- Offer training to counsellors and/or psychotherapists,
- Have personnel who offer counselling skills in the course of their work.

To ensure the setting and maintaining of standards within the profession all organisational members agree to observe and adhere to; BACP's Ethical Framework for the Counselling Professions, BACP's Ethical Guidelines for Research in the Counselling Professions (where research is undertaken either by an organisation or any practitioner within it), the Articles, regulations and Terms and Conditions of the Association.

What membership of BACP offers your organisation

➤ Commitment to public protection

Our members and their clients are at the heart of everything we do.

Your membership of BACP demonstrates to your employees and the public that you share our values and support us in our work to raise standards and promote expertise in the counselling professions.

➤ Enhanced status and credibility

Forty years of experience and the combined passion and knowledge of our 60,000 members have made us a leading voice for the counselling professions in the UK.

Promoting your membership of BACP to your staff and clients communicates your organisation's commitment to quality.

➤ Secure ethical foundations

Our Ethical Framework for the Counselling Professions is your blueprint for good practice.

Supported by a suite of guidance documents and our Professional Conduct Procedure, the Ethical Framework provides you with a powerful toolkit for maintaining high standards within your organisation.

If you provide training or a therapeutic service you can further enhance your ethical foundations by applying for accredited status which demonstrates your quality and professionalism.

➤ Quality support and resources

You'll receive a subscription to the print edition of our flagship journal, Therapy Today, and free access to our online Counselling and Psychotherapy Research journal.

Should you need support or guidance during your membership, whether logistical or ethical, our friendly and knowledgeable team are here to support you.

Organisation application form for BACP membership

For BACP use only:

Category:

Application form valid from:
1 April 2023 to 31 March 2024

Application guidance

The following information is designed to make the application process as straightforward as possible. Please read the guidance notes before completing the form, referring to the relevant sections for assistance.

Important information

Organisational membership of BACP runs for 12 months from the date of confirmation that your application for membership has been formally accepted. A renewal notice will be issued annually in advance of your subscription expiry.

Please allow up to 28 working days for the processing of your application. The length of time to process your application could be longer where a declaration is made under section 7. Errors, omissions, insufficient information or under/non-payment will delay your application until rectified. An administration charge of £20 will be deducted from any refund if the application is withdrawn or rejected and no error occurred on the part of BACP.

All membership applications are subject to BACP's vetting/checking procedures. This is to ensure that standards for membership of BACP, and the profession, are maintained.

Please complete in block capitals.

Organisation primary contact person

The primary contact person will be responsible for ensuring that the BACP Ethical Framework for the Counselling Professions, Articles of the Association, regulations and Terms and Conditions are brought to the attention of, available to, and adhered to by all people providing services for and/or on behalf of the organisation. The current Ethical Framework can be downloaded at www.bacp.co.uk/ethical_framework

Each organisation applying must nominate a suitable contact person willing to act as a membership coordinator and a point of contact within the organisation for BACP. It's the responsibility of the organisation to update us should the primary contact person change.

For partnership organisations the primary contact person must be one of the partners and similarly the sole trader must be the contact person. All other types of organisations must provide a contact person as detailed above.

All correspondence and BACP journals will be addressed to this person. Any change of contact person must be notified in writing, on headed paper, or by email, from either a person responsible for the organisation (as given in section 2) or, from the current primary contact confirming the name of the new contact person. BACP will not discuss the organisation's membership details with anyone other than the nominated contact person.

Disclaimer

It is the sole responsibility of the Primary Contact to share log-in details with those who they deem appropriate within the organisation.

BACP recommends that the log-in password is changed as soon as someone with access leaves the organisation or when the Primary Contact believes the account has been accessed by someone without authority to do so.

BACP does not accept liability should the log-in details be passed to an inappropriate person by someone within the organisation.

Organisation internal policies and procedures

It is in the best interests of all BACP organisational members, and the profession as a whole, that certain policies and procedures are in place to ensure certain minimum standards are observed

Therefore, the policies and procedures below are mandatory to all applying organisations and a copy of each must be sent with your completed application form. These are for our records and will not be assessed.

If, subject to the size and nature of the organisation, it is considered that any of these policies and procedures are not applicable, you must provide an additional statement detailing which ones are not applicable, giving reasons as to why this is the case.

The list of policies and procedures detailed is not exhaustive.

You may wish to visit the following websites for further guidance on these issues:

Organisation internal policies and procedures

Please indicate which of these policies and procedures are in place and fully implemented within your organisation.

Copies for BACP's records (not assessment) must be included with your application to membership.

- ☐ 1. Internal and/or client complaints procedure
- ☐ 2. Grievance and disciplinary procedure
- ☐ 3. Equal opportunities policy
- ☐ 4. Policy and procedure for client assessment
- ☐ 5. Policy and procedure for supervision
- ☐ 6. Health and safety policy
- ☐ 7. Data protection/confidentiality/record keeping policy
- ☐ 8. Employee vetting procedures, including DBS checks (where work is undertaken with CYP or vulnerable adults)

Policies and procedures declaration

I confirm that the policies and procedures indicated above are in place and fully implemented. Further, that these are available and accessible, as appropriate, to all relevant persons using the premises, or providing services on behalf of the organisation. If, subject to the size and nature of my organisation, it is considered that any of the above policies are not applicable, I have included an additional statement giving reasons why this is the case.

Disclosure

Please answer ALL of the questions in this section. This section relates to both the organisation and anybody providing services within and/or on behalf of the organisation. BACP must be advised immediately of any changes, in the future, to the information disclosed now. It is the responsibility of the Primary contact person to advise BACP of any changes.

Expulsions from another professional body, having been the subject of a disciplinary review by another body, or having been prosecuted for an offence are not necessarily a bar to membership of BACP. However, failure to disclose any such information, or the submission of false declarations, may result in the termination of membership of this Association.

Applications containing such declarations and/or disclosures concerning relevant matters may be submitted to a panel for consideration under the normal procedures outlined in the Articles of the Association and regulations.

To assist with your application please ensure that you provide sufficient information in relation to your declaration together with any relevant documentary evidence where applicable. All declarations made will be considered by the Professional Conduct Department therefore allow sufficient time for your application and declaration to be processed.

Disclosure

It is important that you complete this section in full. Please note that disclosure of any information does not automatically exclude your organisation from BACP membership. However, failure to disclose such information may result in a refusal or termination of membership.

Primary contact declaration and signature on behalf of the organisation

Please read through the contact declaration carefully. By signing, dating and returning this application form on behalf of the organisation, you will be deemed to have accepted the terms and conditions of membership of BACP. The declaration emphasises that it is the responsibility of the primary contact person to notify BACP immediately of any changes in the future, to the information they have provided or declared on this application. This is with regard to the organisation itself or the person/persons who provide services for and/or on behalf of the organisation.

The primary contact person, on behalf of the organisation, must ensure familiarisation with BACP's Ethical Framework for the Counselling Professions, together with the Professional Conduct Procedure, and that they are brought to the attention of, available to, and adhered to by all persons providing services for and/or on behalf of the organisation, including users of the service. The current Ethical Framework can be downloaded at www.bacp.co.uk/ethical_framework

If your organisation's work involves research into counselling and psychotherapy, you are responsible for familiarising yourself with the Ethical Guidelines for Research in the Counselling Professions on behalf of the organisation and ensuring that it is appropriately disseminated amongst all staff, volunteers and any other persons. These are available to download from the BACP website at www.bacp.co.uk. If you cannot access the document from the website, a copy is available on request from Customer Services on 01455 883300.

Primary Contact declaration and signature on behalf of the organisation

1. On behalf of the organisation, I have read, understood and confirm that the organisation will uphold and abide by the Association's Ethical Framework for the Counselling Professions as amended from time to time. I also confirm that the organisation will uphold and abide by the Ethical Guidelines for Research in the Counselling Professions as amended from time to time, if any work involves conducting research in the field of counselling and psychotherapy. I understand that the organisation will be subject to the Professional Conduct Procedures and the associated protocols of BACP should any complaint arise against the organisation during its period of membership. I confirm that the organisation will observe BACP's Articles of Association, regulations and policies and procedures (available at www.bacp.co.uk) for the time being in force.
2. On behalf of the organisation, I confirm that the aforementioned Ethical Framework(s) (as applicable to this organisation's service), has been fully and properly filtrated throughout the organisation and that all services will be delivered in accordance with it. I also confirm that the Ethical Framework(s) is/are available within the organisation for all users of the services delivered by the organisation. Furthermore, the organisation accepts that it may be jointly and severally liable to BACP for any complaints that may arise against any staff/volunteers and/or others who deliver any services on behalf of the organisation.
3. I confirm that the organisation, and/or anybody providing services for and/or on behalf of the organisation, does not have any judgement made against it/them that might prejudice the public's trust in it/them, and/or the profession and/or BACP if accurately informed about all the circumstances of the case, OR, I attach details of any prosecutions and/or any other information to be taken into account in considering this application for membership.
4. I confirm that the organisation, and/or anybody providing services for and/or on behalf of the organisation, has not been refused membership of a professional body and/or register on the grounds of professional misconduct or similar in a related field, OR, I attach details of matters or sanctions relating to professional misconduct or similar to be taken into account in considering this application for membership.

5. All relevant pending criminal, civil, financial difficulties or disciplinary actions, investigations, proceedings or enquiries are declared on an attached statement.
6. I confirm that the information contained in and attached to this form is true, accurate and complete to the best of my knowledge and belief. I hereby authorise officers of BACP to make such enquiries as they consider necessary to verify the information given. I understand that any false or misleading statement, falsification of accompanying evidence or collusion may lead to disciplinary action being taken against the organisation which may result in the termination of the organisation's membership of BACP. I understand that failure to disclose on application or during the period of membership could lead to disciplinary action being taken against the organisation which may result in the termination of the organisation's membership of BACP.
7. I understand that payment of subscriptions does not constitute acceptance of this application to join BACP.
8. I understand that there may be occasions when it is necessary and/or appropriate to share information about the organisation with other regulatory/professional bodies for the purpose of regulation and in the interest of the public protection.
9. I understand that failure to comply with any conditions imposed on membership may result in a breach of contract which may result in termination of membership.
10. I understand that resignation from or failure to renew organisational membership during the continuation of a professional conduct matter will not terminate or invalidate the continued processing or hearing of the matter by BACP.
11. I further understand that the data provided in this application may be used for statistical and/or research purposes to better enable BACP to further its charitable aims.
12. On behalf of the organisation, the designated contact person agrees to notify BACP immediately or at the earliest opportunity of any changes relating to any of the above.
13. On behalf of the organisation, I confirm BACP's Privacy notice has been read and understood and have no objections to the way our data will be processed.

Membership subscription/payment and Divisions

There is only one category of organisational membership however; the membership subscription is dependent on the type of organisations detailed below.

Local voluntary or charitable

If your organisation is a voluntary and/or registered charity working in one location such as a neighbourhood, town or county, or is a county-based, local authority run, educational establishment, or non-commercial university, then this category of membership is applicable.

National voluntary or charitable

If your organisation is a voluntary and/or charitable organisation which covers more than one county, then this category of membership is applicable.

Commercial

If your organisation is a local or national commercial organisation and/or educational establishment (i.e. profit making) then this category of membership is applicable. Sole traders, partnerships, limited companies and any other organisations that are not voluntary or charitable must apply as commercial organisations.

If you are unsure about which subscription type to apply for please contact Customer Services on 01455 883300.

Please choose only ONE method of payment.

Payment can be made by credit/debit card or Direct Debit (annual single or 10 monthly).

From 1 June 2021, we've taken the decision to no longer accept cheque, postal order or cash as payment for membership fees.

Complete the appropriate section for your method of payment.

Regardless of method of payment, membership is granted on an annual basis.

Please note that we do not have an invoicing facility for membership subscriptions, therefore payment must be attached/included with your application form. Receipts can be downloaded from the members' area of our website once membership is confirmed.

Divisional membership with BACP

Over 11,000 members have joined a BACP division and expanded their professional network.

Our divisions represent and promote special areas of interest within the profession. These knowledgeable and supportive communities promote ethical, effective and professional practice and will support you with expert knowledge and guidance. Each division publishes a quarterly journal and provides member-only benefits, including specialist resources and events.

BACP Children, Young People and Families

BACP CYPF is for practitioners and other professionals interested in counselling and psychotherapy for children and young people. We aim to promote counselling and psychotherapy as a rightful entitlement and work for greater accessibility to services.

BACP Private Practice

BACP Private Practice supports members who work in, or are about to embark upon, private practice. For those who may feel isolated working on their own, our goal is to provide a sense of professional belonging and community, share training opportunities and support professional development.

BACP Spirituality

BACP Spirituality is for counsellors, psychotherapists, pastoral carers, chaplains and related professionals whose work is informed by a spiritual perspective. It offers an opportunity to make links with others who are interested in a broad range of related subjects and beliefs.

BACP Coaching

BACP Coaching is a focus for coaches and coaching within BACP. We seek to promote ethical, effective and professional coaching for the wellbeing and enhancement of individuals and organisations. Members are therapists who integrate coaching and counselling across coaching practice, research and academia.

BACP Universities and Colleges

BACP UC is for those involved in the management and delivery of counselling services in further education, higher education and sixth form colleges. We promote and support members working in these settings and represent the sector in debates about policy and practice at national level.

BACP Healthcare

BACP Healthcare is a forum for counsellors and psychotherapists providing psychological therapies in healthcare settings in the public, private and third sectors. We help to promote and support patient choice, accessible services, competent and professional therapists and effective service delivery.

BACP Workplace

BACP Workplace promotes and supports the practice of counselling in the workplace, and practitioners who have clients experiencing workplace concerns. We welcome members interested in the psychological and emotional aspects of health at work or the provision of counselling in the workplace.

For price information, or to join a division, see Section 9 on page 10 of the application form
