

Abigail Denny-Jakes MBACP,

PGCE.

My lived experience, training as a counsellor and continuing to practice in the counselling profession.

INTRODUCTION

▶ To spread awareness of the disabled professional.

- ► Emotional Barriers.
- ▶ Unconditional Positive Regard (UPR).
- Working Within Diversity.
- > Communication.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- ▶ The date was 31st July 2010.
- I woke up 3 weeks later in Hull Royal Infirmary (HDI) High Dependency unit; unable to move, talk, makes any noise, eat etc...
- ► This is such a massive, traumatic, life changing event. Why is it not being recognised as such?
- ► I was 'lucky' I had that internal fight, drive but what about all the others who can't locate their inner resources?

MY STORY

▶ What does UPR mean to you?

REFLECTION

 'Associated with Carl Rogers the founder of person-centred therapy, UPR refers to accepting and valuing the client precisely as they are without judgement, criticism or evaluation' (Counselling Tutor, 2024).

UNCONDITIONAL POSITIVE REGARD (UPR)

Would you welcome me as part of the Counselling community?

REFLECTION.

'10. The practitioners personal and relational moral qualities are of the utmost importance. Their perceived presence or absence will have a strong influence on how relationships with clients and colleagues develop and whether they are sufficient quality and resilience to support the work' (BACP Ethical Framework, 2018).

PERSONAL MORAL QUALITIES.

Physical Emotional

Parking Space Independence

Lift Belonging

Speech Validation

Writing Self worth

ENTERING THE COUNSELLING WORLD

COMMUNICATION.

Why would anyone assume a person's needs?

Are individuals frightened?

Is ethical mindfulness being overlooked here?

OPPRESSIVE PRACTICE

▶ How do you feel working within diversity?
