

Exploring community & belonging among LGBTQ+ counsellors & psychotherapists

Are you an LGBTQ+ counsellor or psychotherapist (qualified to Level 4 or above) based in the UK?

I'm seeking voluntary research participants for my MA in Integrative Counselling. I'd love to hear from fellow members of the LGBTQ+ community in the field, to contribute to a currently under-researched area.

What will the study explore?

- Feelings around belonging as LGBTQ+ counsellors/psychotherapists
- Experiences of peer networks, solidarity & support
- Ways LGBTQ+ practitioners build community & connection

What does participation involve?

- One informal interview with me, around 45–60 minutes, taking place online
- Anything you share will be anonymous
