

Are you a counsellor or psychotherapist who works in private practice?

Hi I'm Phill I am completing my MSc in Child protection and Adult safeguarding at Buckinghamshire New University. I am passionate about safeguarding in private practice and I am keen to understand Counsellors and Psychotherapists views on the perceived sufficiency of their safeguarding training when working in private practice.

Bridging the competence gap: Assessing the perceived sufficiency of safeguarding training for counsellors and psychotherapists in private-practice who have navigated safeguarding concerns.

I am interested in your thoughts and experiences through completion of this anonymous questionnaire below.

Entry criteria:

- A qualified counsellor or psychotherapist
- Working in private practice
- Has completed safeguarding training
