

Practicing Counsellors! Call for Research Participants

Research Aims

This IPA qualitative research study aims to provide an opportunity for counsellors to share their perspectives and experiences of the physical environment in which their therapeutic work takes place.

Eligibility Criteria

- Therapist/counsellor currently practicing in any indoor space.
- Registered member of a counselling/psychotherapy professional body, eg BACP, NCPS, UKCP etc.

What will participation involve?

An online research interview, conducted via Microsoft Teams lasting approximately 60 minutes. The interviews will be video recorded after gaining your informed consent. Your identity and your contribution will remain confidential throughout the research process and all participant data will be anonymised.
