

Therapist Directory Renewal

When you subscribe to our therapist directory, you agree to these terms and conditions:

1. It's your responsibility to check your listing online and to make sure that all the information displayed is up to date and appears as you wish. We're not accountable for any incorrect information that's displayed on your listing.
2. Your listing will be due for renewal on an annual basis - we'll get in touch with you by email to let you know when it needs to be renewed.
3. If you don't renew your directory listing, or if you cancel your listing, it will no longer be displayed on the directory search pages of our website.
4. If your status as a registered member or accredited service lapses, your listing will no longer be displayed on the directory search pages of our website.
5. Your purchase of a directory subscription doesn't guarantee you a generation of income or an increase in enquiries from potential clients.
6. The details you choose to make public in your directory listing will be in the public domain and may be used by third parties.
7. We reserve the right to remove your listing at any time if we find that any of the information on it is false.
